POPPY SEED PANCAKES

SERVES: 12 PANCAKES (4 PANCAKES PER SERVING)

TOTAL TIME: 40 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 medium egg
200g plain flour
75g caster sugar
2 tsp baking powder
150ml milk
2 lemons, juiced and zested
40g poppy seeds
2 tbsp coconut oil

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by sifting the flour into a large bowl to remove any lumps before mixing in the sugar, baking powder and salt.

In a measuring jug, whisk together the milk, egg, poppy seeds, lemon juice and zest. Create a well in centre of the flour mixture and pour the liquid into it. Using a wooden spoon, slowly fold the flour into the wet ingredients until a smooth batter has formed.

Heat a lightly oiled non-stick frying pan over a low heat and add one ladleful of batter. Spread the batter out to create a pancake 10 cm in diameter and cook for around 3 minutes or until the base has turned golden brown. Flip the pancake and cook for a further 2 minutes on the other side before removing from the pan.

Repeat this process until all the batter is used up. Wrap the finished pancakes in kitchen foil to keep warm while the rest cook. Squeeze a wedge of lemon over the pancakes before serving with a dollop of natural yoghurt and honey for a delicious breakfast

AVOCADO ON TOAST WITH SMOKED SALMON

SERVES: 2

TOTAL TIME: 15 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 avocado, peeled and stoned
2 tbsp fat-free natural yoghurt
½ lemon, juiced
2 slices of rye bread, toasted
½ tsp cayenne pepper
75g smoked salmon
¼ cucumber, thinly sliced using a vegetable peeler
Handful of watercress
Dressing:
½ red chilli, deseeded and diced
Handful fresh mint, chopped
½ lemon, juiced and zested
1 tomato, diced
1 tsp white wine vinegar
Pinch salt and black pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin making the dressing by combining all the dressing ingredients in a small bowl and seasoning to taste before setting aside.
In a separate bowl, roughly mash together the avocado, lemon juice and yoghurt. Be careful not to make the mixture too smooth, as you want it to have a chunky texture.
Divide the avocado mixture between the slices of toasted rye bread. Sprinkle over a pinch of cayenne pepper to add a touch of heat and colour before layering the smoked salmon and cucumber ribbons on top. Finish by adding a small handful of watercress on the salmon and drizzling the dressing over everything.

ROCKET, EGG AND CHARRED ASPARAGUS SALAD

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 20 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

4 eggs
1 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
340g asparagus, trimmed
50ml Greek yoghurt
1 lemon, juiced
1 tbsp water
150g rocket
Pinch salt and black pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your grill to a high heat.

Meanwhile, bring a saucepan of water to the boil. Add the eggs and cook for 6-8 minutes until they are hard-boiled or to your liking. Using a slotted spoon, remove the eggs from the water and place in a bowl of ice or cold water for a few minutes to halt the cooking process. Once the eggs are cold to the touch, peel and cut into quarters.

Place the asparagus on a baking tray and drizzle over olive oil and a pinch of salt and pepper. Grill for 3 minutes until it is lightly charred, then remove from the grill and chop into 3 cm pieces.

In a small bowl make the salad dressing by combining the yoghurt, lemon juice and seasoning – if the dressing is too thick just add a splash of water. Once it has reached your desired consistency, fold the rocket into the yoghurt mixture.

To serve, arrange the rocket on a platter and top with the asparagus and hard-boiled eggs.

BAKED FRENCH FRIES

SERVES: 6

TOTAL TIME: 50 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

- 400g potatoes (preferably russet), sliced into chips
- 1l water
- 1½ tsp salt
- 1 tbsp sugar
- 1 tbsp olive oil

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 220°C/425°F/gas 7. Peel the potatoes and slice them into chunky chips. In a large bowl, add salt and sugar to the water and drop in the potato slices before leaving them to soak for around 5 minutes. Soaking the potatoes draws moisture out of them so that they will become even crisper in the oven. Once the potatoes have soaked, drain them and pat them dry with a dishtowel. In a large bowl coat the potatoes with the salt and olive oil. The easiest way to do this is to toss them with your hands. After the potatoes have been evenly coated in olive oil spread them onto a large baking tray that has been coated with a non-stick cooking spray. Bake the chips for around 25 minutes at 220°C (425°F) and then flip them with a spatula before raising the temperature to 260°C (500°F). Bake at the higher temperature for 10 minutes, until the chips look crisp and golden. For this recipe make sure that your oven has reached the correct temperature before putting the chips into bake, as a hot oven is essential for restaurant-quality chips.

1 white onion, diced
3 garlic cloves, crushed
1 red pepper, chopped
450g lean turkey mince
1 tbsp chilli powder
2 tsp ground cumin
1 tsp dried oregano
¼ tsp cayenne pepper
½ tsp salt
2 x (400g) tins chopped tomatoes
300ml chicken stock
2 x (400g) tin kidney beans, drained and rinsed
1 x (400g) tin sweet corn, drained and rinsed

INSTRUCTIONS

In a large frying pan, sauté the onion, garlic and red pepper over a medium heat for around 5 minutes, or until the vegetables are tender and beginning to caramelise. Add the turkey to the pan and cook through before adding the spices.

Let the spices roast in the pan until they are aromatic before adding the chopped tomatoes, stock, kidney beans and sweet corn. Bring the chilli to the boil and let it reduce for around 30 minutes by which point the sauce will be thick and rich. Season to your taste with a pinch of salt and black pepper before removing from the heat.

MOROCCAN FILO PIE

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR 30 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 bell pepper, deseeded and sliced
15g dried porcini mushrooms
5 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
1 large white onion, diced
2 garlic cloves, crushed
¼ tsp saffron
1 tsp ground cinnamon
½ tsp ground ginger
½ tsp allspice
Handful flat-leaf parsley, chopped
4 eggs, hard boiled, shelled and chopped
50g almonds, toasted
230g chestnut mushrooms, sliced
2 carrots, grated
Handful watercress, chopped
7 sheets filo pastry

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating the grill to a medium-high temperature, grill the pepper on all sides until its skin is well charred. Remove from the oven and place the pepper in a plastic bag, the condensation in the bag will help loosen the skin. When cool, remove from the bag and then skin, deseed and dice the pepper.

Preheat the oven to 180°C/360°F/gas 4. Meanwhile, rehydrate the porcini mushrooms by placing them in hot water. Leave them to soak for 15 minutes before draining and then roughly chop them. Reserve some of the soaking liquid for later.

Heat the oil in a large frying pan and add the onion and garlic. Cook for 5 minutes, or until they have softened and started to caramelise. Add the saffron and spices and toast them in the pan shortly before adding the chopped parsley and the reserved porcini soaking liquid. Simmer until the liquid has evaporated, it should smell incredible by now, and then stir in the chopped eggs and almonds. Season well with salt and freshly ground black pepper before removing from the heat and setting aside. In another frying pan heat some more olive oil and fry the porcini and chestnut mushrooms. Cook these on a medium-high heat until they have warmed through and then mix in the carrots, watercress and oven roasted pepper.

To assemble the pie, brush 2 filo pastry sheets with olive oil and use them to line a loose-bottomed cake tin leaving the edges of the pastry hanging over the side. Begin filling the pie by spooning the onion and egg mixture over the pastry and then cover with another filo sheet. Add the mushrooms and top this with 2 more filo sheets, these should then be tucked down the sides of the tin creating a neat parcel. Brush the top of the pie with oil and decorate with the final filo sheet crumbled into pieces for an impressive finish.

Bake the pie in the oven until it is golden and crisp, then serve.

COCONUT AND SQUASH DHANSAK

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 20 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

500g butternut squash, peeled and chopped into 2cm chunks
1 tbsp vegetable oil
2 white onions, diced
4 tbsp mild curry paste
1 (400g) tin chopped tomatoes
1 (400g) tin coconut milk
1 (400g) tin lentils
200g spinach
150ml coconut yoghurt
1 naan bread

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by putting the chopped squash in a bowl with splash of water. Cover this with cling film and microwave for 10 minutes. This should steam the squash and it will quickly become tender. If you prefer, you can also roast the squash in the oven at a medium-high heat for 35 minutes. While the squash is cooking, heat oil in a large pan and add the onions. Cook until the onions are translucent and soft before adding the curry paste, tomatoes and coconut milk. Let this simmer for 10 minutes until it has thickened into a rich sauce. Drain any liquid from the microwaved squash (ignore this step if you have roasted the squash). Add the squash to the sauce with the lentils, spinach and season to taste. Allow the spinach to wilt in the sauce and then mix in the coconut yoghurt to add some added creaminess. Serve the curry with toasted naan bread and a dollop of extra yoghurt on the side.

SEA BASS WITH CANNELLINI BEANS

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 40 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

4 skinless sea bass fillets
¾ tsp sea salt
½ tsp black pepper
3 tbsps extra-virgin olive oil
5 garlic cloves, sliced
2 tsp fresh thyme
8 cherry tomatoes, quartered
200ml chicken stock
1 (400g) tin cannellini beans
140g baby spinach
Handful olives, stoned
1 lemon, juiced

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by sprinkling the fish with a pinch of sea salt and black pepper. Add 1 tbsp of oil to a frying pan over a medium-high heat and add the fillets of fish. Cook each side of the fish until it reaches your desired level of doneness. We recommend cooking the fish for 3 minutes on either side but just cook for more or less time to suit your own preference. Once the fish is cooked to your liking, remove it from the frying pan and wrap it in foil to keep it warm.

Add the garlic to the same frying pan so that it cooks in the same oil as the fish - this will allow the cannellini bean sauce to absorb the flavour of the fish. Fry the garlic until it begins to caramelise and then add the tomatoes and the thyme. After these ingredients have cooked through, add the stock and the cannellini beans. Let the sauce simmer for few minutes and then add the spinach in batches, allowing each batch to wilt before adding the next. Stir in a handful of olives, season to your taste and squeeze over the lemon juice for some added zing.

To serve, divide the bean mixture between 4 bowls and nestle a fillet of sea bass into the cannellini beans.

MISO MARINATED FLANK STEAK

SERVES: 5

TOTAL TIME: 3 HOURS

INGREDIENTS

- 80ml sake
- 60ml mirin
- 1 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tsp fresh ginger, minced
- 1 tsp sugar
- 2 tbsp white miso
- 1 flank steak, trimmed
- 1 tbsp peanut oil

INSTRUCTIONS

To make the marinade for the flank steak, begin by heating the sake, mirin, soy sauce, ginger and sugar in a small saucepan over a medium-high heat. Once the mixture begins to boil, remove it from the heat and whisk in the miso until it has fully dissolved. Set aside and fully cool. Place the steak in a sealable plastic bag and pour in the marinade making sure the steak is fully submerged. Keep the steak marinating in the fridge for between 2 hours and 1 day.

After the steak has marinated, remove it from the bag and let it to rest at room temperature for 40 minutes. Meanwhile, preheat your oven grill to a medium-high heat. Pat the steak dry and brush with oil before placing on the grill rack and cooking for 6 minutes per side, or until the meat thermometer inserted into the steak reads 50°C (125°F). This will give you a perfect medium-rare steak but if you like your steak more well-done then keep it under the grill for longer.

Once cooked the way you wish, transfer the steak to a chopping board and leave to rest for 5 minutes. To serve the steak, cut it diagonally across the grain into 1 cm slices.

CREAMY FETTUCCHINE WITH BRUSSELS SPROUTS AND MUSHROOMS

SERVES: 6

TOTAL TIME: 30 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

340g whole wheat fettuccine
1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
170g mixed mushrooms (we recommend oyster, shiitake or cremini), thinly sliced
170g brussels sprouts, thinly sliced
2 cloves garlic, crushed
60ml dry sherry
400ml low fat milk
2 tbsp all purpose flour
½ tsp salt
½ tsp black pepper
120g Asiago cheese, grated

INSTRUCTIONS

Bring a large pot of water to a boil and cook the fettuccine until al dente. Once the pasta is cooked, drain and put to the side. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large frying pan over a medium heat. Add the mushrooms and sprouts and cook for around 10 minutes, or until the mushrooms have released all of their liquid, before adding the garlic to the pan. Sauté the sprouts, mushrooms and garlic until fragrant before pouring in the sherry and bringing to the boil. After around 2 minutes, whisk in the milk and flour and season to taste. Continue whisking the sauce until it thickens before stirring in the Asiago cheese, which will make it rich and glossy. Add the fettuccine to the sauce and warm through before serving.

Heat the oil in a non-stick sauté pan, add the garlic, pepper, chilli and the whites from the spring onions and fry for 5 mins over a medium-high heat.

Meanwhile, put a large pan of water on to boil.

Add the spices, tomatoes, most of the coriander and the chickpeas to the sauté pan and cook for 1-2 mins more. Stir in the bouillon powder and enough liquid from the chickpeas to moisten everything, leave to simmer gently.

Once the water is at a rolling boil, crack in your eggs and poach for 2 mins, then remove with a slotted spoon.

Stir the spring onion tops into the chickpeas, then very lightly crush a few of the chickpeas with a fork or potato masher to add texture.

Spoon the chickpea mixture onto plates, scatter with the reserved coriander and top with the eggs.

Serve with an extra sprinkle of cumin for added warmth and flavour if desired

CHICKEN KORMA

SERVES: 2

TOTAL TIME: 45 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

½ white onion, diced
2 garlic cloves, crushed
200g chicken breast fillets, cut into 3cm pieces
2 tsp sunflower oil
1 tbsp butter
1 tsp ground turmeric
1 tbsp garam masala
½ tsp chilli powder
½ tbsp caster sugar
125g low fat plain yoghurt
30ml coconut milk
20g flaked almonds

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/gas 4.
Heat the oil and butter in a pan and gently fry the onion for around 3 minutes until translucent. Add the garlic and fry until both begin to caramelise. At this point, add the turmeric, garam masala, chilli powder and sugar to the pan. Let the spices roast for 1 minute or until they smell incredible. Once the onion and spice mixture is cooked, stir in the yoghurt and coconut milk. Let this gently simmer for a few minutes and remove from the heat.
Place the pieces of chicken into a casserole dish and pour over the yoghurt sauce. Cover the dish and bake in the oven for around 30 minutes until the chicken is cooked and is well marinated in the sauce. Before serving, sprinkle flaked almonds over the curry.

SALMON BURGERS WITH AVOCADO SALSA

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 28 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

450g salmon fillet
50g panko breadcrumbs
1 egg
2 spring onions, finely sliced
½ poblano pepper, deseeded
and sliced
1 lemon or 1 lime, juiced
½ tsp salt
¼ tsp black pepper
Avocado salsa:
1 large ripe avocado, peeled,
stoned and chopped
½ poblano pepper, deseeded
and sliced
2 spring onions, finely sliced
1 lemon or 1 lime, juiced
½ tsp salt
¼ tsp black pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by skinning and chopping the salmon fillet into small chunks. In a large bowl, combine the salmon, panko breadcrumbs, poblano pepper, egg, spring onions, lemon or lime juice, salt and pepper. Once all the ingredients are well mixed use your hands or a large spoon to divide the mixture into patties. The easiest way to get a consistent shape and size is to mould them with your hands. Place the patties on a medium-hot griddle pan, or alternatively an outdoor barbeque to give it a smoky flavour, and grill for around four minutes on each side until the salmon is cooked through.

The avocado salsa is simple but very delicious - all you have to do is combine all the ingredients in a large bowl and mix well. Top the salmon burgers with the salsa and serve with or without a bun.

QUINOA STUFFED SPANISH PEPPERS

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR 15 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

300g quinoa (alternatively use rice if you cannot find quinoa)
½ l vegetable stock
4 bell peppers, deseeded and halved
100g tomato salsa
1 tbsp nutritional yeast (optional)
2 tsp cumin powder
1½ tsp chilli powder
1½ tsp garlic powder
1 (400g) tin black beans
Toppings:
1 avocado, stoned and peeled
1 lime, juiced
Hot sauce
Handful coriander, chopped
1 red onion, diced

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 190°C/375°F/gas 5. Thoroughly rinse the quinoa and add it to a pot with ½l of vegetable stock. Bring the stock to a boil over a high heat and then reduce the heat, cover and let the quinoa simmer until all the stock is absorbed. This should take around twenty minutes and by the end the quinoa should look fluffy.

Brush the halved peppers with high heat oil, such as avocado oil. Add the cooked quinoa to a large mixing bowl and add the remaining ingredients. Mix well and then adjust the seasoning to your taste by adding salt, black pepper or more spices.

Generously stuff the halved peppers with the quinoa, remembering that the mixture will shrink in the heat of the oven. Place the peppers in a non-stick baking tray and bake in the oven for around 30 minutes, or until the skin of the peppers is slightly charred.

Serve the stuffed peppers with your favourite toppings. We recommend sliced avocado, a squeeze of lime or even a dash of hot sauce. The stuffed peppers are best served immediately but leftovers can be kept in the fridge for around 3 days and reheated in the oven at 190°C (375°C).

BLACK BEAN CHOCOLATE PROTEIN TRUFFLES

SERVES: 12

TOTAL TIME: 40 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 (400g) tin low-sodium or no salt added organic black beans, rinsed and drained, and patted dry

1 ½ tbsp coconut oil, plus 1 tsp for chocolate coating

2 tbsp pure maple syrup

5 tbsp unsweetened cocoa powder

1 scoop chocolate protein powder of choice

100g good quality chocolate, chopped

Toppings, if desired: sprinkles, flaked coconut, and/or chopped nuts

INSTRUCTIONS

Place black beans, 1 ½ tbsp coconut oil and maple syrup in large bowl of food processor; process until very smooth in consistency. You may need to occasionally scrape the mix from the sides.

Slowly add in cocoa powder and chocolate protein powder (if desired).

Taste and add more cocoa powder if necessary.

If you decide not to add in protein powder, simply replace with about 3 more tbsps of cocoa powder or until batter tastes chocolatey enough to your liking.

Place the truffle batter in the fridge for about 20 minutes. Once chilled remove from the fridge and form the batter into 12 even dough balls; roll them with your hands to form a ball (you can use gloves if you don't want messy hands)

Place the formed truffles on a baking tray lined with parchment paper and place back in fridge while you prepare the chocolate coating:

Heat the chocolate and 1 tsp coconut oil in small saucepan on very low. Stir every so often until chocolate has melted and is smooth.

Remove from heat.

Lift each truffle with a fork or toothpick and dip into the chocolate mixture to coat - they don't have to be perfect!

Roll in sprinkles, nuts or coconut if desired.

Place back on parchment paper and return to the fridge for ten minutes.

Once chilled, enjoy these delicious sweet treats!

NO BAKE ALMOND FUDGE PROTEIN BARS

SERVES: 12

TOTAL TIME: 10 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

80g oats, ground into a flour
40g quick oats
60g vanilla protein powder
15g crispy rice cereal
125g almond butter (or peanut butter)
115g cup honey
1 tsp vanilla extract
Optional: 2-3 tbsp chocolate chips, for melting

INSTRUCTIONS

Prepare a 9 x 5 inch loaf tin by spraying it with cooking spray. Set it aside for now.

In a medium-sized mixing bowl, combine the oat flour, quick oats, protein powder and crispy rice cereal. Mix until well combined and also set aside. In a small pan over medium heat, add almond butter and honey, stirring until the almond butter is melted and fully combined with the honey. Stir in the vanilla extract.

Remove from the heat, pour into the dry mixture, stirring well until everything is well mixed.

Pour the mixture into the loaf tin. Using a spatula or your hands, spread the mixture evenly in the pan, pressing down firmly.

For the optional topping, place the chocolate into a microwave safe bowl and heat on high in 20 second intervals, stirring between each heating session.

When fully melted, drizzle over the top of the packed mix using a spoon. Place pan into fridge and allow to cool for 30 minutes before slicing into bars.

PEANUT BUTTER PROTEIN COOKIES

SERVES: 6

TOTAL TIME: 20 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 ripe banana
2 tsp chia seeds
3 tbsp golden flax seeds
1 tbsp peanut flour
340g vanilla protein powder
2 tbsp mini dairy free chocolate chips

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/ gas 4 and line a baking sheet with parchment paper.

Using a hand mixer or a potato masher, blend the banana until it is a smooth and creamy consistency. Add the chia and flax seeds to the banana and mix until they are well combined. Then, stir in the protein powder and peanut flour and mix until just combined. Do not over mix the protein powder and flour as the banana batter will become too hard. Using your hands, fold the chocolate chips into the batter. You should now have enough batter to make 6 cookies. Use an ice cream scoop to divide the batter and with the palm of your hand, spread the portions of batter into a cookie shape, as these cookies do not rise in the oven. Bake the cookies for around 8 minutes until they have turned golden brown and have a firm texture. Remove the cookies from the oven and place them on a rack to cool for 10 minutes before devouring.
